

Black History - One African Canadian Women Captured on Stamps, Coins & Currency
Howard Ingram

Canada celebrates Black Heritage / History in the month of February same as the United States. Viola Desmond is an African Canadian woman who has made history by being pictured on stamps, coins and currency from Canada.

The stamp booklet was issued on 2/1/2012.

The Silver coin and $10 dollar bill were issued in 2019.

